THE COURT REPORT

Roland Thomas, 39, of the 2200 block of U Place, S.E., pled guilty to a Robbery that occurred on 10th Street, N.E., Washington, D.C., on September 1, 2004. Thomas will be sentenced before the District of Columbia Superior Court Judge Erik P. Christian on September 23, 2005; he faces up to 15 years of incarceration under the statute. Under the recently adopted District of Columbia Sentencing Guidelines, the defendant faces a likely sentence of between 36 and 78 months of incarceration (Case No. F-5526-04; PSA 102).

The government's evidence showed that on September 1, 2004, at approximately 1:00 p.m., a 46-year-old mentally challenged man, left his home and walked a couple of blocks to a convenience store at 1101 H Street, N.E., where he purchased several "scratch-off" lottery tickets. He was initially unsuccessful, but, after purchasing some additional tickets and scratching them, he learned that he had won $25,000. While still inside the store, the 46-year-old man exclaimed that he had won $25,000, and actually showed the winning ticket to several store patrons, including the defendant. As the store manager was validating the winning ticket and explaining to the 46-year-old man that he needed to take it to the D.C. Lottery Board offices located at 14th and U Streets, N.W., to receive his check, the defendant offered the man a ride to the Lottery Board. He also offered to help him to cash in his winning ticket. The winning lottery ticket holder said no to both, then left the convenience store and began to walk home to tell his mother about what had happened. The entire sequence in the store was captured on the store's video surveillance camera.

In order to get home, the 46-year-old man decided to cut through an alley in the 700 block of 10th Street, N.E. When he emerged from the alley, the defendant pulled up in a dark-colored SUV, jumped out, and approached him. The defendant then punched the 46-year-old man (the complainant) in the chest and snatched the winning lottery ticket from his hand, then sped off in his truck.

Immediately after the robbery, the complainant went home and told his mother about all that had happened to him, and she immediately called 911 and reported the incident to police. As part of the investigation, police returned to the convenience store, along with the complainant. After confirming with the store managers that the complainant had just won the lottery, police decided to review the video surveillance tape. While they and the complainant were watching the tape, the complainant saw the defendant on the tape and immediately identified him to police as the person who had robbed him of his ticket. Police also contacted the D.C. Lottery Board and alerted them that someone might soon appear at their offices and attempt to redeem the stolen $25,000 ticket.

In the meantime, the defendant returned home and was attempting to find someone to redeem the stolen lottery ticket on his behalf at the D.C. Lottery Board. Eventually, he was able to convince a neighbor to redeem the ticket for him. The defendant subsequently drove the neighbor down to the D.C. Lottery Board's offices, and dropped him off to redeem the ticket. The defendant's wife also accompanied his neighbor, in order to ensure that the check was later safely turned over to the defendant. The defendant, meanwhile, drove around the block until his wife notified him that the ticket was successfully redeemed. As soon as the defendant's neighbor and wife entered the Lottery Board offices and attempted to redeem the ticket, police were notified. They arrived at the Lottery Board a short time later and detained both the defendant's neighbor and wife. After police persuaded the defendant's wife to call and tell him that the ticket had been cashed, the defendant drove up in his truck and was subsequently arrested outside the building. Shortly after the defendant's arrest, the stolen lottery ticket was safely returned to its rightful owner, who then presented it to the Lottery Board and received all of his winnings.

Akande Johnson, 23, of the 700 block of 11th Street, N.E., and Damon Franklin, 19, of 1200 block of G Street, N.E., were convicted of Second Degree Murder while Armed on July 26, 2005. The United States Attorney also announced that Walter Clark, 20, of the 1800 block of Independence Avenue, S.E., was convicted of Involuntary Manslaughter on July 25, 2005. These convictions stemmed from the brutal beating of Carl Francis Wellman, Jr., then 29, on July 13, 2003, which resulted in Mr. Wellman's death on August 8, 2003. The District of Columbia Superior Court Judge John H. Bayly, Jr. will sentence Johnson and Franklin on October 14, 2005, each face a maximum sentence of life of incarceration. Clark, who will be sentenced by Judge Bayly on October 3, 2005, faces a maximum term of 30 years of incarceration (Case Nos. F-6205-03 & F-6151-03; PSA 102).

The government's evidence at trial showed that in the early morning hours of July 13, 2003, Johnson, Franklin and Clark, all attended a cabaret held at a church in Southeast Washington, D.C. Also at that cabaret was the decedent, Carl Wellman, who was a barber at Hillman's Barbershop on H Street, Northeast. At some point during that night, a fight broke out in the church basement. During that fight, Johnson was struck by an unknown individual. Also during that fight, a friend of Franklin and Clark was injured when he was struck with a bottle by an unknown person.

Later that night, sometime after leaving the cabaret, Carl Wellman drove to the 600 block of 10th Street, Northeast, Washington, D.C., to drop off friends after the evening out. As soon as Wellman drove up, Johnson, Franklin, and Clark, who were already present in the block, walked toward Wellman's car. Johnson, who had been a customer of Wellman, confronted Wellman, who was still seated in the driver's seat, demanding to know if Wellman hit him at the cabaret. Wellman got out of the car and said he did not hit Johnson. Clark, who was standing nearby, then approached Wellman and threw a single punch, striking Wellman in the face. Wellman fell to the ground. With Wellman on the ground, Johnson and Franklin began kicking and stomping on him.

Eyewitness testimony at the trial established that Johnson and Franklin repeatedly kicked and stomped Wellman on his head and upper body, and that Wellman initially attempted to defend himself by trying to crawl and pull himself from the ground back into his car. The assault finally came to an end when a witness yelled at the defendants to stop. The defendants left the scene as a group. Wellman, who was at that point unconscious, was transported to Howard University Hospital by a friend, where he was admitted to the surgical intensive care unit. Over the next three weeks, Wellman remained at the hospital in a semi-vegetative state, until his death from his injuries on August 8, 2005.

Jesse Edwards, 28, of the 2000 block of Rosedale Street, N.E., and Gertrilla Holley, 37, of the 600 block of 21st Street, N.E., were convicted of First Degree Murder, Armed Robbery and Carrying a Dangerous Weapon on June 21, 2005. Both defendants face mandatory minimum sentences of 30 years up to life of incarceration. The District of Columbia Superior Court Judge Robert I. Richter will sentence the defendants on September 9, 2005 (Case Nos. F-3539-04 & F-6098-04; PSA 103).

According to the government's evidence, during the early morning hours of Wednesday June 2, 2004, Gertrilla Holley gained information from a friend that the victim, Charles Price, had in his possession some drugs and money, and would soon be arriving at corner of 19th and E Streets, N.E. This was an area where Holley and Edwards sold crack cocaine, but they were unfamiliar with the victim, Mr. Price. Holley solicited Edwards to rob the victim and to take his money and drugs. At approximately 5:20 a.m., the victim arrived in the area in an automobile. Edwards and another man walked up to this automobile and dragged the victim out of the car. During a struggle that ensued, Edwards fatally stabbed the victim four times. Edwards recovered $75 from the victim's pockets as he lay bleeding in the street.

Calvin Missouri, 42, of the 700 block of 18th Street, N.E., pled guilty to Aggravated Assault while Armed in connection with a near-fatal stabbing of an ice cream deliveryman on February 17, 2004. Missouri will be sentenced before the District of Columbia Superior Court Hiram E. Puig-Lugo on September 30, 2005. The defendant faces potential incarceration of up to 30 years at sentencing. As a part of the plea agreement with the government, the defendant agreed not request a sentence of less than 138 months of incarceration at the time of sentencing in this case (Case No. F-1132-04; PSA 103).

According to the government's evidence, on February 17, 2004, at approximately 1:00 p.m., the defendant approached the victim near a convenience store located at 1830 Benning Road, N.E., Washington, D.C. At that time, the victim was completing a delivery of ice cream and similar products to the convenience store. The defendant asked the victim for the time. He then produced a knife and attacked and demanded that the victim give up his cell phone. The victim grabbed the defendant's arm to keep from being stabbed, and the two men struggled. The victim was able to break free of the defendant and run down a nearby alley. The defendant gave chase and cornered the victim, yelling that he was going to kill him. The defendant attacked again and forced the victim to the ground, where he repeatedly stabbed at the victim's chest with the knife. Despite the victim's efforts to deflect the blows with his arms, the defendant stabbed him in chest four times. The defendant's repeated attempts to stab the victim halted only when a neutral, concerned citizen saw the attack, approached and intervened. The defendant then sliced open the victim's pocket, grabbed the victim's cell phone and fled the scene. The citizen remained on the scene and called the police, giving what aid he could to the victim while they waited for an ambulance. The extensive wounds inflicted on the victim by the defendant resulted in a collapsed lung, which required surgery to repair. The victim credits the actions of the concerned citizen with saving his life.

On the afternoon of the attack, detectives from the Metropolitan Police Department went to a residence on 18th Street, N.E., which is listed as the home of the defendant in police files. Once inside the home, they observed a jacket, consistent with the description given by witnesses of the jacket worn by the attacker. The jacket appeared to be stained with blood. A witness inside the home who is familiar with the defendant stated that the defendant had entered the home wearing the jacket shortly after the stabbing. The witness stated that the defendant removed the jacket and left the home shortly thereafter. DNA testing later revealed the blood on the jacket to be that of the victim in this case. Detectives later interviewed a second witness who indicated that the defendant had admitted to stabbing an ice cream deliveryman on February 17, 2004. The defendant was arrested the day following the offense.

Paul Shorter, 40, of no fixed address in Washington, D.C., was convicted of First Degree Felony Murder, First Degree Burglary, Mayhem, and Robbery on June 29, 2005. The defendant faces a mandatory minimum sentence of 30 years up to life of incarceration. The District of Columbia Superior Court Judge Rhonda Reid Winston will sentence the defendant on September 9, 2005 (Case No. F-22-04; PSA 105).

According to the government's evidence, on May 17, 2003, the defendant was trespassing inside of 461 H Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. This address is a D.C. Housing Authority Residence specifically reserved for senior citizens and persons with medical, physical or mental disabilities. The defendant went to the apartment of the victim, Odell Keys, with one of the residents of the building who was physically and mentally handicapped. That resident let the defendant into Mr. Keys' apartment. While inside the apartment, the defendant beat Mr. Keys into unconsciousness and stole his television, which he later sold for 5 rocks of crack cocaine. As a result of the defendant's actions, Mr. Keys lapsed into a coma and never regained consciousness. He died five months later as a result of his injuries. He was 71 years old at the time.

Natassia Kelly, 22, of the 1100 block of February Circle, Silver Spring, Maryland, was sentenced before the District of Columbia Superior Court Judge Wendell P. Gardner on July 26, 2005, to mandatory minimum term of five years of incarceration to be followed by three years of supervised release for shooting at a Metropolitan Police Department Officer. On July 1, 2005, Kelly pled guilty to one count of Assault on a Police Officer and one count of Possession of a Firearm During a Crime of Violence. The Court also ordered the defendant to undergo alcohol and anger management treatment and to pay $200 to the Victims of Crime Fund (Case No. F-8004-02; PSA 109).

According to the government's evidence, on December 13, 2002, First District Police Officer Mark McConnell, who was in uniform sitting in his marked police cruiser at the 400 block of Seventh Street, Southeast, heard a woman cry for help. When Officer McConnell approached Kelly, she asked how to get to the University of Maryland. As Officer McConnell was giving her directions, Kelly pulled out a .380 handgun and fired a shot, which blew off Officer McConnell's hat and grazed his head. Stunned by being shot, Officer McConnell returned fire, but missed. Kelly continued to walk up the street, turned and pointed her gun at Officer McConnell. Back up officers from the First District immediately arrived on the scene. Officer Nick Deciutiis arrived and was able to stop the defendant. Inside her waistband was a .380 handgun and on the ground was a magazine holding 3 bullets.

Kelly claimed that she had been shot and was subsequently taken to D.C. General Hospital. While at the hospital, Kelly's blood was taken and revealed a blood alcohol level of .279. Kelly claimed to have blacked out during the event because she had been drinking a bottle of Christian Brothers.

On July 26, 2005, Kelvin L. Martin, 27, of the 200 block of N Street, S.W., along with his uncle, Robert W. Hawkins, 55 of the 5200 block of Dix Street, N.E was found guilty of Assault on a Police Officer and Simple Assault in D.C. Superior Court. Sentencing is scheduled for Martin on Friday October 21, 2005; Hawkins will be sentenced on Wednesday October 26, 2005, before Judge Erik P. Christian. They both face a statutory maximum penalty for assault on a police officer is five years in prison and a fine of $5,000. The maximum penalty for simple assault is 180 days in prison and a fine of $1,000 when sentenced.

The evidence introduced at trial demonstrated that, on August 23, 2004, just before 3:00 p.m., near the intersection of K and North Capitol Streets, NE, United States Park Police Officer Ross Dykman was in full uniform while driving westbound in an unmarked police vehicle. He observed the defendant, Robert Hawkins, sitting in the passenger seat of a late-model Chevy Suburban drinking what appeared to be alcohol from a brown paper bag. When Hawkins saw Officer Dykman, he attempted to move the bottle quickly out of sight. Officer Dykman got out of his vehicle, approached the truck identified himself as a police officer, ordered the driver-defendant Martin to put the truck in park, and asked Martin for his driver's license.

Martin looked through his clothing and throughout the truck for a license, but his search was in vain; for at the time he had no license to operate a vehicle in the District of Columbia. Officer Dykman then ordered Martin to pull over to the side of the road after the traffic light at the intersection changed, and he reached in to grab the bottle of alcohol Hawkins was trying to hide in between his seat and the center console of the SUV.

While Officer Dykman reached in, Hawkins grabbed Dykman's wrist, and yelled, "go." Martin put the truck into gear and, despite pleas from Officer Dykman, pulled away at a high speed around the corner, barreling the truck north on North Capitol Street as Officer Dykman was being dragged. Officer Dykman ordered the driver to stop the car multiple times as the car sped north on North Capitol Street, and, when that failed, pulled out his service weapon while holding on to the truck with his right hand.

Martin tried to scrape Officer Dykman off the truck by knocking him off on a vehicle parked at the intersection of North Capitol Street and L Street, NE. When that failed, Martin drove east on L Street at approximately 50 miles per hour while swerving. Once on L Street, Officer Dykman shouted multiple times that he would have to shoot if Martin did not stop. Martin replied with an expletive and told Officer Dykman that he would have to shoot. Officer Dykman attempted to fire his weapon, but Hawkins grabbed Officer Dykman's hand. The weapon discharged during their tussle, and Hawkins was struck in the side by a bullet.

As his weapon discharged, Officer Dykman lost his grip and hit the pavement at approximately 50 miles per hour, sustaining injuries to his head, hands, shoulder, ankles, and legs. Martin and Hawkins's truck continued eastbound on L Street, ran through a red light, and collided with three vehicles parked in front of the Greyhound Bus Station. The truck pulled off, and the men were apprehended thereafter near the 500 block of Oklahoma Avenue, NE.

On June 23, 2005, a Superior Court jury found Arthur Bigesby, 25, formerly of the 5300 block of Clay Terrace, NE, Washington, D.C., guilty of aggravated assault of a D.C. jail prison guard. The statutory maximum penalty for aggravated assault is ten years in prison and a $10,000 fine. Under the recently adopted Superior Court guidelines, the defendant faces a likely sentencing range of 30 to 78 months in prison. Bigesby's sentencing is scheduled to take place before D.C. Superior Court Judge Harold L. Cushenberry, Jr. on September 22, 2005.

The government's evidence at trial demonstrated that on March 23, 2004 at approximately 2:30 p.m., in the Southeast-Three Unit of the District of Columbia Central Detention Facility, or D.C. Jail, a correctional officer was placing inmates in their cells as part of the afternoon count procedure. She was attacked from behind by the defendant, an inmate, who strangled her with his right arm until she lost consciousness. The defendant continued strangling her even after she lost consciousness.

On June 30, 2005, a 46-year-old Northwest man (formerly residing in PSA 101), whose name is being withheld to protect the identity of the victims, was sentenced by the Honorable Robert I. Richter to an aggregate period of 27 years of incarceration for sexually abusing two young girls. The defendant also is required to register as a sex offender for life.

In April 2005, a D.C. Superior Court jury found the defendant guilty of two counts of First Degree Child Sexual Abuse, one count of Assault with Intent to Commit First Degree Child Sexual Abuse, two counts of Second Degree Child Sexual Abuse, and two counts of Felony Threats. The facts elicited by the government at trial showed that between March 2000 and August 2001, the defendant routinely forced one of the victims – who was a thirteen-year-old friend of his daughter – to engage in various sexual acts with him. When the victim was unwilling to comply, the defendant assaulted and threatened to kill her. Beginning in May 2000, when the second victim – who was the defendant's stepdaughter – was eleven years old, and continuing through May 2002, the defendant repeatedly fondled his stepdaughter, and when she resisted, he threatened to kill her. Neither victim immediately disclosed the abuse; however, authorities were eventually notified and the defendant was arrested in August 2004.

Also on July 6, 2005, Eugene Kojo Holmes, Jr., 28, of the 4000 block of Beecher Street, NW, Washington, D.C., was sentenced by Superior Court Judge Susan R. Winfield to two years in prison for an attempted aggravated assault of a taxi driver whom the defendant believed cut off his vehicle. Holmes pled guilty to the charge on May 17, 2005. Judge Winfield's sentence was the maximum suggested by the applicable Superior Court sentencing guidelines. (Case No. F-7089-03; PSA 101)

According to the government's evidence, on April 23, 2003, the defendant misconstrued the victim's attempt to let the defendant's vehicle proceed first at an intersection. The defendant then followed the victim several blocks. As the taxi driver delivered his fare to the Grand Hyatt Hotel, located at 1000 H Street, NW (PSA 101), the defendant parked his car and ran to the taxi driver to confront him. The defendant punched the taxi driver in his eye and, when the victim got out of his car to tell the defendant to wait for the police to arrive, punched the taxi driver several more times about the eye and head, even after the victim lost consciousness. As a result of the attack, the taxi driver suffered a permanently dislocated lens and broken bones in his eye socket and nose.

On July 11, 2005, Ronnell Holmes of Upper Marlboro, Maryland was convicted by a federal jury of unlawful possession of a firearm by a person previously convicted of a felony. Holmes will be sentenced on September 23, 2005, before U.S. District Judge John D. Bates. This case was prosecuted under the Project Safe Neighborhoods (PSN) initiative. PSN is a partnership between local and federal agencies to reduce gun violence in the District of Columbia.

The evidence at trial established that at approximately 3:40 a.m. on February 13, 2005, Metropolitan Police Department Officers John Delaroderie and Steven Greene, who were in full uniform and in a marked cruiser, observed a man and woman standing in the rear alley of the 200 block of N Street, NW, in the District of Columbia. Upon seeing the officers, the man the officers observed – later identified as the defendant – started running away from the officers. Officer Delaroderie exited the cruiser and pursued Holmes on foot, following as Holmes ran east in the alley. Officer Greene drove the cruiser around the block in an attempt to cut Holmes off at Kirby Street, NW. Officer Delaroderie saw Holmes jump over several fences behind private homes, and caught him as he hopped over a fence.

When Officer Green arrived to assist Officer Delaroderie, he noticed a package of brown “E-Z Wider” cigarette wrapping paper sticking partially out of the right front pocket of the defendant’s pants, in plain view. Holmes told the officers that he lived in Maryland. When asked how he arrived in the District of Columbia that night, Holmes gave a number of conflicting answers and finally stated that he had driven his vehicle into the area. The defendant also stated that he had just paid $20 for oral sex with the woman with whom he had previously been seen.

After he gave the officers a full description of his car, the official registration of which was introduced as evidence at trial, Holmes gave the officers written consent to search. Officer Greene searched the vehicle, and found under the driver’s seat a gray and silver Ruger P89 9mm semiautomatic firearm. The weapon was loaded with 12 rounds of 9mm ammunition. The defendant had been previously convicted of felony firearm and sex offense charges in the Superior Court for the District of Columbia and was on probation at the time of this offense.

On July 15, 2005, a 40-year-old District man, of 4th Street SE plead guilty to sexually abusing nine-year-old boy. When the defendant is sentenced by the Honorable Judith E. Retchin on September 23, 2005, he will face up to ten years in prison and $100,000 in fines, and a likely sentence under the voluntary sentencing guidelines of 30-72 months in prison.

According to the government's evidence, the defendant frequently invited neighborhood boys to spend time at his apartment. The boys played games there, slept there, and bathed there. A nine-year-old boy was one of the children who spent time at the defendant’s home. On several occasions in the fall of 2004, while the boy was sleeping, the defendant lay down beside him and sexually abused him.

DISTRICT COURT CASES

Dashiell Ponce de Leon, 26, of Richmond, Texas, pleaded guilty June 22, 2005 before the Honorable Gladys Kessler, United States District Court Judge, to a one-count Information charging Criminal Copyright Infringement, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2319(b)(1) and 17 U.S.C. § 506(a)(1) and (b), in connection with his illegal Internet sales of over $1 million of copyright protected software and video games from web sites he owned and operated. Ponce de Leon faces a statutory maximum sentence of 5 years incarceration, a $250,000.00 fine, a three-year term of supervised release, and an order to pay restitution. Under the federal sentencing guidelines, the defendant faces a likely sentencing range of 46 to 57 months of incarceration. In addition, a provision of the plea agreement in this case requires Ponce de Leon to forfeit to the United States all of his computer equipment, peripherals, and all digital media containing infringing copies of copyright protected works, which were seized by federal agents from residences and his business pursuant to duly authorized search warrants. Sentencing is scheduled for October 6, 2005.

According to information presented to the Court by Assistant U.S. Attorney Sherri L. Schornstein, from approximately December 1, 2002 through May 2003, Ponce De Leon owned and operated the web sites: “Powerbackups Ultimate Software Backup Resource ” (“www.Powerbackups.com”) and “Softworks #1 Software Backup Service” (“www.Softworks.com”). From these web sites, he advertised for sale, at prices far below the manufacturers’ suggested retail prices, over 200 software and video game titles, all of which were protected by copyright. Legitimate copies of the software programs and games listed for sale on the two web sites had retail values ranging from $30.00 to over $26,000.00 per copy.

Neither defendant Ponce De Leon nor any one doing business under the named web sites <http://www.Softworks.com> <http://www.Powerbackups.com> was authorized by the copyright owners to reproduce, sell or distribute the software or video game titles advertised for sale on the web sites. Ponce de Leon obtained illegal copies of the software programs offered for sale on his web sites by downloading the illegal, “pirated,” software programs from various “warez” web sites. Warez web sites are Internet locations that offer software and other programs which have been illegally manipulated to defeat or bypass copyright protection programming.

Ponce de Leon advertised on his web sites that the only difference for a purchaser buying software from his web sites versus in a store was that the purchaser would not receive the box and the manual. Both web sites instructed purchasers that payment for the software programs should be made through PayPal. Once an order was received, Ponce De Leon reproduced the pirated software programs and video games, packaged the CDs for distribution, and mailed them to the customers. Numerous titles were purchased by a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, acting in an undercover capacity, and shipped by Ponce de Leon to the District of Columbia and elsewhere, including Macromedia Flash MX (retail value $499.00), Microsoft Office XP Premium (retail value $579.00), and Microsoft Windows XP Pro (retail value $299.00), Adobe Photoshop 7 (retail value $609.00), Autodesk Building Systems (retail value $4,016.65), Lightwave 6 (retail value $2,495.00), MS Office XP Premium (retail value $579.00), and NBA Live 2003 (retail value $39.99), Adobe Golive 6 (retail value $399.00), Lightwave 6 (retail value $2,495.00), Mastercam 8 (retail value $12,900.00), Macromedia Studio MX (retail value $899.00), and Macromedia Flash 5 (retail value $499.00), Autodesk Autocad 2004 (retail value $3,750.00), Harry Potter 2 (retail value $34.99), Lightwave 7 (retail value $795.00), MS Windows 2K Datacenter (retail value $26,000.00), and MS Office XP 2003 (retail value $579.00).

From approximately January 2002 through May 2003, Ponce De Leon received via Paypal and converted to his own benefit approximately $192,000.00 in payments from persons purchasing the pirated software and video games, described above. The total retail value of all pirated sales for the titles reflected in the undercover purchases and other identical title sales as documented in customer payment records totaled $1,154,395.85.

Nabih E. Bedewi, 41, of Reston, Virginia, was sentenced June 29, 2005 before United States District Judge Richard W. Roberts to 38 months of imprisonment to be followed by three years of supervised release and 50 hours of community service. Bedewi was also ordered to pay restitution of $872,220.99 immediately. Bedewi pled guilty on April 13, 2005, to one count of theft of concerning a program receiving federal funds, in violation of 18 U.S.C. Section 666.

According to the Government's evidence, Bedewi was a tenured professor at George Washington University's School of Engineering and Applied Science. He was also the Director of the George Washington University National Crash Analysis Center (NCAC). The NCAC is a research and resource center for transportation safety studies on vehicles and highways, headquartered in Ashburn, Virginia. It receives approximately 80 percent of its funding from the Federal Highway Administration and National Highway Traffic Safety Administration. Bedewi caused the NCAC to pay approximately $991,909.31 in fraudulent transactions to entities that Bedewi had an ownership interest in and/or controlled. As part of the scheme, which occurred between April 2000 and July 2004, Bedewi caused to be submitted and approved for payment invoices containing fictitious labor, equipment, and consulting expenses. He also made false representations to establish unauthorized stipends to a family member and a spouse of a business associate and a tuition scholarship for the spouse of a George Washington University employee. NCAC expenses are routinely subject to reimbursement by the Federal Highway Administration and National Highway Traffic Safety Administration as part of the federal funding of NCAC's activities. Many of Bedewi's fraudulent transactions were subject to reimbursement, resulting in losses to the federal government and George Washington University/NCAC totaling approximately $991,909.31.

Dewitt Davis, 67, of the 2900 block of Van Ness Street, Washington, D.C., pled guilty June 30, 2005 in U.S. District Court before the Honorable John D. Bates to the charge of interstate transportation of stolen property. Sentencing is scheduled for September 8, 2005. The defendant faces a maximum of 10 years in prison under the statute and a fine of $250,000. Under the federal sentencing guidelines, the defendant faces a likely sentence of six to twelve months of incarceration.

According to the government's evidence and a statement signed by the defendant, Davis had worked as a professor of geography at the University of the District of Columbia ("UDC") since 1984. Between 1997 and 2002, UDC had been approved to receive grant funds in the amount of $45,000 from the United States Geological Survey ("USGS"). The grant funds were designated to be used to research a water resource project.

In an effort to steal the grant funds, in March 1997, Davis sent a direct deposit form to the USGS, directing the money to go into his personal account rather than the University account. Accordingly, between October 1997 and March 2002, approximately $45,000 was deposited into Dewitt's personal account on six separate occasions.

Humanscale Corporation (formerly Softview Computer Products), a company that provides furniture and office products to the federal government, has agreed to pay the United States $9 million to resolve allegations that the company overcharged the government, the Justice Department announced June 30, 2005.

The government alleged that the New York firm failed to disclose current, accurate and complete discount and pricing information to the General Services Administration (GSA) contract negotiators and failed to comply with the price reduction clauses for three of its GSA Multiple Award Schedule contracts resulting in the overcharging of the government.

The settlement, which covers overcharges that occurred between April 1, 1998 and December 31, 2004, also resolves charges originally brought against Humanscale Corporation by a former employee, Gerald Rademacher. The government took over prosecution of the case in 2005.

Under the settlement, Mr. Rademacher will receive $1,575,000 for bringing the matter to the attention of the government. Under the qui tam or whistleblower provisions of the False Claims Act, a private party can file an action on behalf of the United States and receive a portion of the settlement if the government takes over the case and prosecutes it successfully.

The United States has filed a complaint against Second Chance Body Armor and the Toyobo Company, seeking to recover damages relating to the sale of defective Zylon bulletproof vests to the United States, Peter D. Keisler, Assistant Attorney General for the Justice Department's Civil Division and Ken Wainstein, U.S. Attorney for the District of Columbia, announced July 1, 2005. The vests were manufactured by Second Chance and were made of Zylon fiber manufactured by Toyobo.

The government's False Claims Act complaint alleges that the defendants provided defective Zylon bulletproof vests to federal, state and local law enforcement agencies with knowledge that the strength and bullet-stopping capacity of the Zylon vests were substantially weaker than represented. The complaint further alleges that Second Chance of Central Lake, Michigan and Toyobo of Japan entered into a conspiracy to suppress evidence that the Zylon fabric degraded faster than disclosed to the United States, particularly when exposed to light, heat and humidity. The United States bought the vests directly and partially reimbursed state and local law enforcement agencies for their purchases of the vests under the Bulletproof Vest Grant Partnership Act.

The qui tam or whistleblower lawsuit was originally brought by the former Director of Research and Composite Development of Second Chance, Dr. Aaron J. Westrick, in February 2004. Under the False Claims Act, a private citizen can sue on behalf of the United States and may share in any recovery. The United States is seeking civil fraud damages that are recoverable under the False Claims Act and common law.

Bernard Gurr, 52, a former credit union manager in American Samoa, was resentenced July 7, 2005 by Chief Judge Thomas F. Hogan of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia to a term of imprisonment of 70 months, to be followed by three years of supervised release, in connection with his conviction on federal conspiracy, fraud, and obstruction charges in a $4.5 million bank failure case. Gurr was also ordered to pay restitution in the amount of $65,000. Chief Judge Hogan found that Gurr's actions during the time he was manager of the American Samoa Government Employees Federal Credit Union caused the collapse of a financial institution. The case had been remanded to Judge Hogan for resentencing following the Supreme Court's decision in United States v. Booker, which held that the federal Sentencing Guidelines were not mandatory. Judge Hogan imposed the same period of incarceration as he had imposed in 2003.

Gurr was convicted on April 9, 2001, after a three and a half week jury trial, of eighteen counts including conspiracy, violating books and records requirements under the National Credit Union Administration ("NCUA"), lying to the NCUA examiners about the financial condition of the American Samoa Government Employees Federal Credit Union ("Credit Union") which he headed, obstructing the examination of a financial institution, and tampering with a witness.

The United States Attorney's Office for the District of Columbia has jurisdiction over American Samoa by virtue of a federal law, which provides that offenses not committed in any judicial district shall be tried in the District of Columbia.

The government's evidence at trial demonstrated that Gurr, who was the Credit Union's manager, conspired with other Credit Union employees, loan officers and collections agents between 1990 and 1993 to hide the true, failing financial condition of the Credit Union from the NCUA examiners who were required to make periodic visits. The proof at trial showed that Gurr orchestrated a cover-up of the financial condition of the Credit Union by creating false delinquent loan reports, which masked the actual delinquency rate of the loans extended by the Credit Union. Through his computer access and knowledge, Gurr changed due dates and interest rates for loans without the knowledge of the borrowers. He also created a system within the Credit Union where he personally approved loans without consulting the Credit Committee of the Board of Directors of the Credit Union. Although there were loan policies in place, Gurr, as manager, ignored them in favor of friends and family. The evidence also showed that Gurr embezzled credit union funds by creating a false loan account with funds from this account flowing directly to him.

Additionally, Gurr knew when the examiners from the NCUA were coming to look at the Credit Union and subsequently instructed his employees to hide their indebtedness in excess of $50,000 and to create new loans in the names of their children or spouses with different last names. He also instructed the Credit Union employees not to speak with the examiners, but to refer all questions to him directly. The proof at trial further revealed a convoluted accounting scheme in which Gurr directed the Credit Union bookkeepers to keep certain accounts away from the examiners.

As the examiners determined that the Credit Union had a delinquent loan rate far in excess of 20%, they realized that the Credit Union would have to be placed into a conservatorship by the NCUA in October 1993. When the NCUA examiners and officials arrived on American Samoa to serve the papers of conservatorship upon Gurr and the Board of Directors, Gurr resisted and took Credit Union documents and property in response. The NCUA was forced to seek a permanent injunction in the High Court of American Samoa demanding Gurr's return of the property. Many of the documents were not seen again until Gurr was arrested on an FBI warrant as he deplaned in Honolulu, Hawaii, on December 11, 1999. He had two boxes worth of Credit Union documents in his luggage, including several loan files.

More than 30 witnesses testified at trial and many former employees of the Credit Union traveled to Washington from American Samoa. Three co-conspirators, Mene Loia, Aukuso Afano Ah Ching, and Eneliko Kelemete, former loan officers at the Credit Union, testified for the government. Ah Ching and Kelemete were sentenced to one year of probation. Loia was sentenced to one day in jail and five years of supervised release. Each of the co-defendants entered prompt guilty pleas and were key in making the government's case against Gurr.

On July 7, 2005, a federal grand jury sitting in the District of Columbia returned an 18-count indictment charging Barbara Joan March, 59, of Bridgeport, Connecticut, with mailing threatening communications and injurious articles to the Justices of the United States Supreme Court and the Director and Deputy Director of the FBI, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 876(c) and 1716(a) and (j)(2). The defendant was arrested by FBI agents on June 24, 2005, in Connecticut and is currently awaiting removal to the District of Columbia to face the charges. The maximum penalty upon a conviction for mailing a threatening communication is ten years in prison, while the maximum penalty upon conviction for mailing injurious articles is 20 years in prison.

The indictment charges that on or about April 22, 2005, March mailed eleven letters, postmarked New York, New York, to the Supreme Court Justices and FBI officials. Each letter stated either "I am" or "We are," followed by "going to kill you. This is poisoned." Each of the letters also contained either the crumbled remnants of what appeared to be a baked good or a smashed piece of candy. The indictment alleges that seven of the letters addressed to the Supreme Court Justices contained rat poison.

On Friday, July 8, 2005, United States District Judge Richard Roberts sentenced William Farrell, 59, of the 3500 block of Hertford Place, NW, Washington, D.C., to 324 months of incarceration for conspiracy to possess with the intent to distribute and distribute cocaine, cocaine base, and heroin; possession with the intent to distribute 5 grams or more of cocaine base; and unlawful distribution of cocaine. The Court also sentenced Farrell to a concurrent 240 months of incarceration for conspiracy to commit money laundering, and maintaining a dwelling for the purpose of manufacturing, distributing, and using controlled substances. Judge Roberts ordered that Farrell serve ten years of supervised release upon completion of his prison sentence. The Court also ordered the defendant to pay forfeiture in the amount of $874,800.00, for which the defendant is jointly and a severally liable, and a separate forfeiture of $28,560.00, for which he is individually responsible.

This sentence resulted from a federal jury finding William Farrell, and co-conspirators Carroll Fletcher, age 49, of Oxon Hill, Maryland, and Nathaniel Law, 43, of the 2000 block of Rosedale Street, NE, Washington, D.C., of numerous federal narcotics and money laundering offenses after approximately seven weeks of trial on January 19, 2005. On April 19, 2005, Judge Roberts sentenced co-defendants Fletcher and Law to life in prison for their roles in the conspiracy to distribute illegal narcotics.

The trial evidence demonstrated that between January 1996 and November 2003, William Farrell obtained kilogram quantities of cocaine and additional quantities of heroin from sources in the state of New York and elsewhere and redistributed these illegal substances to Carroll Fletcher, Nathaniel Law, and others for resale on the streets in the Washington, D.C., metropolitan area. The majority of these kilogram quantities of powder cocaine were cooked into cocaine base, in the form known as crack, by Fletcher, Law, and others at various apartments, to include residences at 200 K Street, Northwest, and 2002 Rosedale Street, Northeast. These drugs were then sold at numerous locations throughout the District of Columbia, primarily including 9th and P Streets, Northwest, 4th and New Jersey Avenue, Northwest, 4th and Rhode Island Avenue, Northeast, and the 2300 block to the 2600 block of North Capitol Street, Northeast.

During the conspiracy, agents with the Federal Bureau of Investigation and Metropolitan Police Department conducted extensive physical surveillance, executed judicially authorized wiretaps on three cellular telephones, executed at least seven search warrants, and made undercover purchases or seizures of crack cocaine on at least seven different occasions. These actions led to the recovery of significant quantities of powder and crack cocaine, firearms, drug contraband, and thousands of dollars in U.S. and foreign currency.

Ronnell Holmes, 33, of Upper Marlboro, Maryland, was convicted on Monday, July 11, 2005, by a federal jury of unlawful possession of a firearm by a person previously convicted of a felony. Holmes will be sentenced on September 23, 2005, before U.S. District Judge John D. Bates. This case was prosecuted under the Project Safe Neighborhoods (PSN) initiative. PSN is a partnership between local and federal agencies to reduce gun violence in the District of Columbia.

Evidence at trial established that at approximately 3:40 a.m. on February 13, 2005, Metropolitan Police Department Officers John Delaroderie and Steven Greene, who were in full uniform and in a marked cruiser, observed a man and woman standing in the rear alley of the 200 block of N Street, NW, in the District of Columbia. Upon seeing the officers, the man the officers observed – later identified as the defendant – started running away from the officers. Officer Delaroderie exited the cruiser and pursued Holmes on foot, following as Holmes ran east in the alley. Officer Greene drove the cruiser around the block in an attempt to cut Holmes off at Kirby Street, NW. Officer Delaroderie saw Holmes jump over several fences behind private homes, and caught him as he hopped over a fence.

When Officer Green arrived to assist Officer Delaroderie, he noticed a package of brown “E-Z Wider” cigarette wrapping paper sticking partially out of the right front pocket of the defendant’s pants, in plain view. Holmes told the officers that he lived in Maryland. When asked how he arrived in the District of Columbia that night, Holmes gave a number of conflicting answers and finally stated that he had driven his vehicle into the area. The defendant also stated that he had just paid $20 for oral sex with the woman with whom he had previously been seen.

After he gave the officers a full description of his car, the official registration of which was introduced as evidence at trial, Holmes gave the officers written consent to search. Officer Greene searched the vehicle, and found under the driver’s seat a gray and silver Ruger P89 9mm semiautomatic firearm. The weapon was loaded with 12 rounds of 9mm ammunition. The defendant had been previously convicted of felony firearm and sex offense charges in the Superior Court for the District of Columbia and was on probation at the time of this offense.

On Friday, July 15, 2005, a federal jury in Washington, D.C., returned guilty verdicts against six serial bank robbers. All six defendants were found guilty of numerous offenses, including conspiracy to participate in a Racketeer Influenced Corrupt Organization (RICO), and substantive bank robbery and weapons violations, stemming from the defendants’ commission of six bank robberies in the metropolitan area. One defendant was also convicted of an assault that took place in connection with the defendants’ criminal activities. The defendants are expected to be sentenced later this year by United States District Court Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly.

The six defendants are Miguel Morrow, 26, and Lionel Stoddard, 22, both of the 700 block of Marietta Place, NW; Carlos Aguiar, 25, of the 1400 block of Fairmont Street, NW; Bryan Burwell, 27, of the 7300 block of Finns Lane, Lanham, Maryland; Aaron Perkins, 27, of the 2600 block of Brinkley Road, Oxon Hill, Maryland, and Malvin Palmer, 24, of Bronx, New York.

The conviction for RICO conspiracy carries a possible life sentence. Some of the weapons charges carry mandatory-minimum terms of ten (10) and thirty (30) years in prison. The armed bank robbery charges each carry a possible term of twenty-five (25) years of imprisonment. The assault charge carries up to fifteen (15) years of imprisonment.

The RICO conspiracy charged that the six defendants, and others, participated in the following six armed bank robberies in D.C. and Maryland: January 22, 2004, Bank of America, 5911 Blair Road, NW, Washington, D.C., in which approximately $144,000 was taken; March 5, 2004, Riggs Bank, 7601 Georgia Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C., in which approximately $92,000 was taken; May 10, 2004, Chevy Chase Bank, 3601 St. Barnabus Road, Temple Hills, Maryland, in which approximately $54,000 was taken; May 27, 2004, Chevy Chase Bank, 5823 Eastern Avenue, Chillum, Maryland, in which approximately $18,000 was taken; June 12, 2004, Industrial Bank, 2012 Rhode Island Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C., in which approximately $30,000 was taken; and June 29, 2004, SunTrust Bank, 5000 Connecticut Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C., in which approximately $23,000 was taken.

Defendant Morrow was also convicted of an assault with intent to kill on May 15, 2004, in Northwest Washington, D.C., of an individual who allegedly stole a weapon from the criminal enterprise.

Three other individuals, Nouredine Chtaini, Omar Holmes, and Guidel Noel Olivares, previously pled guilty to related charges in this matter. Two of those defendants, Chtaini and Holmes, also pled to a car jacking and an attempted car jacking that occurred in Maryland during the time of this criminal spree.

Lowell William Timmers, of Cedar Springs, Michigan, was sentenced July 20, 2005 by U.S. District Judge Emmet G. Sullivan to a 34-month period of incarceration followed by three years of electronic monitoring while Timmers is on supervised release. The Court also ordered the defendant to stay away from the Nation's Capital. Timmers entered a guilty plea on March 17, 2005, to one count of Threats or Maliciously Conveyed False Information to Destroy Property by Means of an Explosive.

According to the government's evidence, Timmers had arrived in Washington, D.C., on January 18, 2005, a day after leaving from his home in Cedar Springs, Michigan. For almost five hours, on January 18, 2005, just two days before the Inauguration of the President of the United States, Lowell William Timmers, paralyzed a portion of the Nation's Capital by threatening to destroy the White House and those in and near it. During the stand-off, Timmers' actions occupied the work of scores of law enforcement officers, forced the closing of several streets and sidewalks, and forced an untold number of innocent citizens to waste an incalculable number of hours trying to get into and out of downtown Washington.

On January 18, 2005, at approximately 3:37 p.m., a U.S. Secret Service Officer saw the defendant, later identified as Lowell W. Timmers, drive an older model red Ford van to the gate that stands to the south side of Pennsylvania Avenue and 15th Street, Northwest, Washington, D.C., where the officer was posted. The area behind the gate is a secure portion of the White House grounds and is closed to public vehicular transportation. When Timmers was told to move the vehicle that he was driving from that area, he raised his hand, which appeared to contain a switch device with wires attached, and stated "I want my son and I'm not leaving until my son-in-law is out of jail. I have ten gallons of gas in here and I will blow up the van and the White House." A secure perimeter was set up to protect all life and property nearby. Timmers refused to surrender. The Metropolitan Police Department's Emergency Response Team then began to attempt to negotiate with Timmers.

During the standoff, several streets and sidewalks near and around the intersection of 15th Street and Pennsylvania Avenue were closed to vehicular and pedestrian traffic creating gridlock and massive delays for commuters. At approximately 8:15 p.m., over four and half hours after Timmers drove to that location to threaten life and property, he surrendered and was arrested. A search of Timmers' van was conducted by the Metropolitan Police Department's Explosive Ordinance Division. Recovered in the van were 6 glass canisters containing gasoline and several plastic canisters containing gasoline. The canisters appeared to be connected to electrical wiring and a light bulb. Timmers stated that he ran the wires to the canisters and also connected them to a light bulb within the vehicle to make it seem that they could be detonated.

Sixty-five-year-old Edgar Lopez Bertrand, a naturalized U.S. Citizen who was residing in El Salvador, pled guilty July 21, 2005 in Houston, Texas, before U.S. District Judge David Hittner to two counts of False Statements in the Application for United States Passports. The plea agreement contemplates a sentence equivalent to the time Bertrand will have served at the time of his sentencing, or approximately a three-month period of incarceration. The maximum penalty for this offense is ten years. Pursuant to the federal rules of criminal procedure, the plea proceedings and the sentencing are being handled by the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Texas, the jurisdiction where Bertrand was arrested, at his request and by agreement between that U.S. Attorney's Office and the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of Columbia. Bertrand will remain incarcerated pending his sentencing, which is scheduled for August 11, 2005, before the Honorable Lee H. Rosenthal.

According to the government's evidence, on February 17, 1995, the defendant, Edgar Lopez Bertrand, presented a fraudulent El Salvadorian birth certificate in the name of Pamela Lopez Bertrand to the Consular Section at the U.S. Embassy in San Salvador, El Salvador. Edgar Bertrand claimed that Pamela Lopez Bertrand was his biological daughter. As a result of his representations, a U.S. Department of State Consular Report of Birth Abroad (FS-240), # 159-0217530, was issued in the name of Pamela Lopez Bertrand certifying her as a U.S. Citizen. Edgar Bertrand then executed, swore to the veracity of, and signed an Application for U.S. Passport (DS-11) on behalf of Pamela Lopez Bertrand. He presented the fraudulent El Salvadorian birth certificate and fraudulent FS-240 in support of the DS-11. As a result of the application, U.S. Passport # Z7491913 was issued on February 17, 1995, in the name of Pamela Lopez Bertrand.

On February 2, 2000, Bertrand applied for a renewal passport on behalf of Pamela Lopez Bertrand at the U.S. Embassy in San Salvador, El Salvador. He again executed, swore to the veracity of, and signed a DS-11. Bertrand presented U.S. Passport # Z7491913 as proof of identification for Pamela Lopez Bertrand. As a result of the application, U.S. Passport # 701583691 was issued in the name of Pamela Lopez Bertrand.

On January 27, 2005, Bertrand executed, swore to the veracity of and signed a DS-11 for a renewal passport on behalf of Pamela Lopez Bertrand at the U.S. Embassy in San Salvador, El Salvador. Bertrand presented U.S. Passport # 701583691 and FS-240 # 159-0217530, both in the name of Pamela Lopez Bertrand, as proof of identity. The Consular Officer, accepting the application, noted the female child bore no physical resemblance to Edgar Bertrand. The case was referred to the Bureau of Diplomatic Security's Regional Security Office at the U.S. Embassy in San Salvador, El Salvador for investigation, following which a Special Agent interviewed Edgar Bertrand. During the interview, the defendant stated, and subsequently wrote in a statement, that Pamela Lopez Bertrand is not his biological daughter and had not been legally adopted by him. Bertrand also stated that the El Salvadorian birth certificate he used to obtain the Consular Report of Birth Abroad was fraudulent.

Bertrand was arrested on May 16, 2005, at Houston's Intercontinental Airport pursuant to an arrest warrant obtained through the United States District Court for the District of Columbia.

Former D.C. Department of Motor Vehicles clerk, Lisa B. Johnson, 42, of the 1700 block of Lyman Place, NE, Washington, D.C., and Craig C. Hughes, 43, of the 1700 block of F Street, NE, Washington, D.C., were sentenced July 22, 2005 by United States District Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly for their parts in a bribery scheme involving the selling of D.C. driver's licenses in fraudulent names from the DMV's Georgetown Branch. Johnson was sentenced to 12 months of incarceration, and Hughes was sentenced to 5 months of incarceration and 5 months of home detention. Both defendants pled guilty on October 24, 2004; Johnson pled guilty to one count of receiving bribes as a public official, and Hughes pled guilty to one count of aiding and abetting in the bribery of Johnson. A third individual, Gregory Murray, 39, of the 1200 block of Otis Place, NW, Washington, D.C., also pled guilty to participating in this same scheme and is scheduled to be sentenced in August.

According to the government's proffer of evidence at the time of the plea, with which the defendants agreed, as well as the affidavits in support of the arrest warrants, which were previously unsealed, this matter involved a joint investigation by the investigative arms of the FBI, Inspector General's Office for the District of Columbia, Office of the Chief Financial Officer for the District of Columbia, the Metropolitan Police Department and the United States Attorney's Office. These agencies were investigating the activities of Johnson relative to her employment with DMV. As part of that investigation, information was developed that an individual was acting as a middleman in deals to illegally sell D.C. driver's licenses in fraudulent names.

The investigators contacted this individual, Hughes, who agreed to obtain for the investigator, acting in an undercover capacity, two licenses for $3,200 or one for $1,800. Hughes told the investigator that he would need the name of an actual person, with a matching Social Security Number, to get the licenses. Thereafter, on two separate occasions, undercover agents met with Hughes and gave him money for the transactions. Hughes then met with Murray, who was the primary contact with DMV employee Johnson, to give him some of the money. Murray escorted the undercover agents into the Georgetown Branch of DMV to meet with Johnson. On the second occasion, before taking the undercover agent to see Johnson, Murray met with Johnson outside DMV and was seen passing her money at that time. Once inside the DMV Office, Johnson processed the licenses for the undercover agents. Although Johnson did not ask for any verification of the identity of the undercover agents, she did put false information on their applications showing that they had turned in out-of-state licenses, had passed the eye test, and were residents of the District of Columbia. After having paid the standard processing fee for a license, the undercover agents left with the licenses with the fraudulent names on them.

On August 26, 2004, an undercover agent conducted another buy of a driver's license in a fraudulent name, and the transaction proceeded in similar fashion to the past occasions. After the undercover agent received the license, all three individuals were arrested.
